

Local Notices.

Port of Memphis.

Friday Morning, 1 January 1859.
NOT ARRESTED.—Orry, who killed Sheriff Webster yesterday, was arrested.

TUESDAY MORNING.— Marshal Underwood, we regret to learn, has been confined to his house for several days from sickness. He is recovering.

TRANS.— You late papers we think E. R. Powell, of the Spyder, and W. H. Steele, of the Miss. McLeans.

STEALING.— John Wilson, a martsal, but not the author of the example of the great jester, was arrested yesterday for stealing.

RECHASER'S COURT.— The recorder, though still suffering, was able to attend in court yesterday. Only nine cases were brought before him.

To ERASER.— Wm. H. Hines, a member of the bar, has been called before the House of the first call, but before sufficient time this afternoon, for examination.

TRANSACTIONS.— The record shows that the field, everybody's field, is green, and he is right for everybody; he has got a fresh supply of the best quality, and will supply stores for the people of Illinois.

DISASTER.— Wm. H. Hines, who has been living here some weeks awaiting a resolution from the Governor of Arkansas, was discharged yesterday by the Aetna Co., no will having arrived.

INCIDENT.— Ruth, slave of Madam Co., was charged before the Recorder yesterday with having beaten a white man with a stick. She was ordered to receive thirty-nine lashes.

CLOTH AND LINEN.— The police yesterday arrested and took to the station house a man who was too fatigued to be able to tell his name or anything else. On searching him $200 hundred and fifty-five dollars was found upon him.

WE PAY PLEASURE IN PUBLISHING ADVICE. To the law card of our friend J. P. Farrelly, esp. he is a counsellor of worth and extensive legal acquirements, and will give prompt attention to all business intrusted to him.

NOTICE.— To the public: It is the desire of Dr. F. P. Thompson to give pleasure in publishing advice to all persons interested in the detection of crimes, may it please you to call on him at his office, 101 Main Street, for a consultation.
